3.2 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS: Election of Directors shall be conducted in the following manner:

The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by written ballot or voting machine. Proxies shall in no event be used in electing the Board of Directors, either in general elections or elections to fill vacancies caused by recall, resignation, or otherwise. Not less than 60 days before a scheduled election, the Association shall mail or deliver, whether by separate Association mailing or included in another Association mailing or delivery including regularly published newsletters, to each unit owner entitled to vote, a first notice of the date of the election. Any unit owner desiring to be a candidate for the Board of Directors must give written notice to the Association not less than 40 days before a scheduled election. Any item not included on the notice may be taken up on an emergency basis by at least a majority plus one of the members of the Board. Such emergency action shall be noticed and ratified at the next regular meeting of the Board. However, written notice of any meeting at which non-emergency special assessments, or at which amendment to rules regarding unit use will be considered shall be mailed, delivered, or electronically transmitted to the unit owners and posted conspicuously to the condominium property not less than 14 days prior to the meeting. Evidence of compliance with this 14-day notice shall be made by an affidavit executed by the person providing the notice and filed among the official records of the Association. Upon notice to the unit owners, the Board shall by duly adopted rule designate a specific location on the condominium property or Association property upon which notices can be posted. If an annual assessment is not made as required, an assessment shall be presumed to have been made in the amount of the last prior assessment, and monthly installments on such assessment shall be due upon each installment payment date until changed by an amended assessment. In the event the annual assessment proves to be insufficient, the budget and assessments may be amended at any time by the Board of Directors.

6.5 NOTICE OF MEETINGS: Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to all unit owners. Adequate notice of all such meetings shall be posted conspicuously on the condominium property, not less than forty-eight (48) hours in advance, provided, however, that no such notice shall be required in the event of an emergency meeting. 6.6 ACCELERATION OF ASSESSMENT INSTALLMENTS UPON DEFAULT: If a condominium unit owner shall be in default in the payment of any installment of an assessment, the Board of Directors may accelerate the remaining installments of the assessment upon notice to the condominium unit owner, and the then unpaid balance of the assessment shall be due upon the date stated in the notice, but not less than five (5) days after delivery of the notice to the condominium unit owner or not less than ten (10) days after the mailing of such notice to him by registered or certified mail, whichever shall first occur.

6.7 DEPOSITORY: The depository of the Association shall be such bank or banks as shall be designated from time to time by the Directors and in which the monies of the Association shall be deposited. Withdrawal of monies from such accounts shall be only by checks signed by such persons as are authorized by the Directors.

6.8 FIDELITY BONDS: Fidelity bonds shall be required by the Board of Directors for all persons handling or responsible for Association funds in such amounts as shall be determined by the Board. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the Association.

7. PARLIAMENTARY RULES: Robert's Rules of Order (latest edition) shall govern the conduct of the Association meetings when not in conflict with the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

8. AMENDMENTS: A resolution for the adoption of a proposed amendment of these Bylaws may be proposed by either the Board of Directors of the Association or by the members of the Association. Members may propose such an amendment by instrument in writing directed to the President or Secretary of the Board signed by not less than ten percent (10%) of the membership. Amendments may be proposed by the Board of Directors by action of a majority of the Board at any regularly constituted meeting thereof. Upon an amendment being proposed as herein provided for, the President, or, in the event of his refusal or failure to act, the Board of Directors, shall call a meeting of the membership to be held not less than fifteen (15) days nor later than sixty (60) days thereafter for the purpose of considering said amendment. Directors and members not present in person or by proxy at the meeting, considering the amendment may express their approval in writing providing such approval is delivered to the Secretary at or prior to the meeting. Except as elsewhere provided, such approvals must be either by:

(a) Not less than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the entire membership of the Board of Directors and by not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes of the members; and

(b) In the alternative, an amendment may be made by an agreement signed and acknowledged by all condominium owners in the manner required for the execution of a deed, and such amendment shall be effective when recorded in the Public Records of Sarasota County, Florida.

8.1 PROVISO: Provided, however, that no amendment shall discriminate against any condominium unit owner nor against any condominium unit or class or group of units unless the condominium unit owners so affected consent. No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Condominium Act, the Articles of Incorporation, or any of the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium.

8.2 EXECUTION AND RECORDING: A copy of each amendment shall be attached to a certificate certifying that the amendment was duly adopted as an amendment to the Declaration of Condominium and Bylaws, which certificate shall be executed by the Officers of the Association with the formalities of a deed. 8.3 RESTATEMENT: At any time, by 2/3 vote of the Board of Directors, these Bylaws may be rerecorded to include all previously recorded amendments and all approved but not yet recorded amendments into a single document for the convenience of the owners and the public at large.
